

RIDGESIDE COMMUNITY CLUB

MINUTES DECEMBER 7, 2007

The Ridgeside Community Club met on Friday, December 7, 2007, at the home of Barbara Walton, 107 Windmere Drive. President Lori Sikes called the meeting to order at 10:50. Twenty-three people were present.

Lori welcomed the guests and read a portion of “Christmas in the Scenic City” pertaining to Shepherd Hills from the The Chattanooga Times Free Press. She then asked the group for their reflections upon Christmas in Shepherd Hills.

The minutes of October 5 were read. With the correction that Katy Ingvalson helped Gail Adkins with the preparation of the 2007-08 Directory, the minutes were approved unanimously.

Treasurer’s Report: Sandra Longer reported a balance of $897.53. Eighteen new members have joined the Community Club.

Cathy Bailey distributed a brochure for “My Family Dinners,” a business on Signal Mountain that prepares home-cooked dinners. It was pointed out that Kerry Blohm, 115 Hilldale, prepares home-cooked casseroles which are available by calling her for an order.

President’s Report: The speed-bumps are in. If anyone has not read the Mayor’s report, Lori will send a copy upon request. Bags for the lighting will be distributed soon.

Lori asked whether publicity was needed for the luminaries on December 18 and 19. After discussion, a motion was made by Cathy Bailey and seconded by Jeanne Rahlfs to advertise the luminaries. The motion passed unanimously.

Lori asked about decorating the Street signs. After discussion, a motion was made by Jean Moore and seconded by Beth Gaffney to purchase permanent decorations for the Street signs. The motion passed unanimously.

Lori reminded people to complete and return their surveys about Shepherd Hill.

Lori informed the group that Katy Ingvalson was the Welcome Basket Chair.

-2-

Mary Frances Marlin is home and appears to be doing well.

Lori thanked Barbara for hosting the meeting and the committee who prepared the food: Katy Ingvalson, Wilma Dietzen, Jo Cooper, and Pat Cox.

Wilma Dietzen concluded the meeting with prayer. Lunch was then served.

Submitted,

Mary Barker, Secretary
December 10, 2007.